Kirk:

I went through my albums, and this is what I found about Aachen. It's from a "Yank" magazine July 17, 1945. I got it enclosed in plastic to preserve it, also a "Yank Meeting" in Aachen.

I hope this will answer your questions about Aachen. At first my mission ~~was~~ <sup>was</sup> at Crucifix Hill. Then we were in Aachen <sub>(west side of Aachen)</sub> cleaning up, looking for German soldiers hiding in many different places.

I was never attached to "A" company. Capt. Thompson was company commander then. As a Recon Company member, we were pushed around a lot, doing different missions. Hope will answer this, so ~~we~~ <sup>you'll</sup> know what all I knew. Incidentally how did you find me. You're the third one.

Regards
Morgan
