1. Narrative:

a. 1 January: Weather: Partly cloudy & cold. Visibility: Fair.

As the period opened, the 634th TD Bn was still attached to the 1st U.S. Inf Division. Company A was attached to the 26th Inf Regt; Company B to the 18th Inf Regt; and Co C to the 16th Inf Regt. The Rcn Company was attached to TF "Davisson" whose other elements consisted of the 1st Rcn Troop of the 1st U. S. Inf Div, and elements of the 745th Tank Bn (Light Tank Co, one mortar platoon, and one 105mm Howitzer Platoon). The TF was commanded by Lt Col. HENRY L. DAVISSON, C. O., 634th TD Bn. The balance of the Bn (Hq & Hq Co) was attached to the 1st U. S. Inf Div Arty.

The battalion was disposed as follows: Hq & Hq Co were situated in Sourbrodt, Belgium with the Battalion CP at (872094). The CP of Co "A" was at Camp Elsenborn, Belgium (891085) with the 1st Platoon (hereinafter referred to as 1A) in AT positions supporting the 1st Bn, 26th Inf Regt at Lutgenbach, Belgium (913033); 2A was in AT positions supporting the 2nd Bn, 26th Inf Regt in the vicinity of Dom Butgenbach, Belgium (931031); 3A was in AT positions supporting the 3rd Bn, at (938736) but were relieved by elements of the 745th Tank Bn, in the evening and went into reserve positions in Butgenbach (913042). The B Co CP was at Nidrum, Belgium (911063) with 1B supporting the 1st Bn, 18th Inf Regt, in AT positions in Butgenbach (912037); 2B supporting the 2nd Bn in reserve at (911063); 3B supporting the 3rd Bn, in AT positions at (895037). One (1) M-10 of 2B was in an indirect fire position (870076) prepared to fire illuminating missions with 3" Star Shell on call. The CP of Co "C" was in the vicinity of Walk, Belgium (845058) with 1C supporting the 1st Bn, 16th Inf Regt in mobile reserve in Guenzaine (863047) 2C supporting the 2nd Bn was in AT positions in Weismes, Belgium (847030). 3C was in reserve in support of 3rd Bn, at (845058). Task Force "Davisson" had been given the mission of guarding the dam at (845073), and the right flank of the Division. The TF CP was in Walk, Belgium (840066). The CP of Rcn Co 634th TD Bn was also located in Walk (840066). 1 Rcn, 3 Rcn, & Pioneer Rcn were also located in Walk. 2 Rcn was located in Libomont, Belgium (835045) where the platoon had set up a road block, and maintained defensive positions. Contact patrols with the 1st & 2nd Bn's of the 16th Inf Regt on the left, and with the 526th Armored Inf Bn and the 2nd Bn, 120th Inf Regt on the right were being run each night by personnel of the Rcn Co. Also a road block in the vicinity of the Co CP was being maintained nightly. On the night of 1 - 2 Jan 45, 1 Rcn contacted the 526th Armored Inf Bn & the 2nd Bn, 120th Inf; 3 Rcn contacted the 1st & 2nd Bn, 16th Inf Regt; & the Pioneer Platoon guarded the road block by the Company C.P. A "buzz bomb" landed in the area occupied by 1A during the morning of 1 Jan 45 and hit a house occupied by a destroyer crew. The house was practically demolished but there were no casualties.

b. 2 January: Weather: Clear to partly cloudy & cold. Visibility: Good.

There was no change in Co A. 2A was relieved by 3B

no action reported. 1C supporting the 1st Bn, 16th Inf Regt, was in reserve positions at (863048). 2C supporting the 2nd Bn, moved to AT positions at (848029). 3C supporting the 3rd Bn, was in reserve positions at (885030). The Co C, CP moved from Walk, Belgium to Guezaine, Belgium (862049). During the night of 13 - 14 Jan, 1 Rcn ran contact patrols to the 3rd Bn, 120th Inf Regt; 2 Rcn maintained their positions in Libomont. 3 Rcn ran contact patrols to the 1st & 2nd Bn's, 16th Inf Regt; and the Pioneer Platoon guarded the road block near the Co CP.

n. 14 January: Weather: Clear & cold; Visibility: Good to very good.

Some enemy artillery fell in the area occupied by 2A during the morning. A fragment from an air-burst went through the floor of an M-10, cutting an oil line. The oil line was repaired in the position. The gun of 1F that was in an indirect fire position at (879075) returned to 1B at Midrum during the evening. Positions of Co C remained the same with no action reported. All road block positions and contact patrols which Rcn Co operated were discontinued.

o. 15 January: Weather: Clear and cold in the morning, becoming overcast at noon. Visibility: Good.

In the early morning of 15 Jan the 1st U.S. Infantry jumped off from positions which had been held since the 12 SS Panzer Division had tried to force a passage north at the beginning of the German breakthrough to the west. The objectives were as follows: The 16th CT on the right was to capture Faymonville, the 18th CT, in the center was to take the high ground about 1400 yards south of their line of departure, & the 26th CT on the left was to hold, demonstrate and support the attack by fire. The snow was deep and the going was very difficult.

Company A remained in the same positions, in support of the 26th Inf. 3B in support of the attack by the 3rd Bn, 18th Inf, moved to an assembly area at (383038). At 0830, they moved to (892031) and occupied direct fire positions. 150 rds 3" HE (NG) and 11 rds 3" APC were expended firing on Ey MG positions in woods in vicinity of (892025) and (892026). After firing, they withdrew to (892033) to resupply ammunition. While firing and withdrawing, heavy arty and mortar fire fell upon them. At least one (1) ey MG was silenced permanently. 1B & 2 remained in the positions as of the previous day. 1B moved at 0700 in support of the attack of the 1st Bn, 16th Inf attack and reached (368016). One (1) Ey MG strong-point at (364021) was neutralized by 3" fire. 3C remained at Weismes. 3C moved at 0700 in support of the 3rd Bn's attack through Faymonville and reached (333023). 3C neutralized three (3) Ey MG strong-points at (322029), (373024), & (373025). 35 rds 3" APC and 99 rds 3" HE (NG) expended. Besides the 3" fire, the destroyers supported the Inf by fire of the 50 Cal MG's on the turrets of the M-10's 2 Fl WIA, one of which remained on duty. 1 Rcn & 3 Rcn were alerted and moved to 2 Rcn positions at Libomont at 0700 with mission to be prepared to move and set-up road blocks at road junctions (835013) & (339012) approximately 1 1/2 miles SW of Weismes. The mission was called off and all personnel returned to their former locations by 2100.

p. 16 January: Weather: Cold & slightly cloudy to clear. Visibility: Fair to good.

The attack continued, and Co A remained in the vicinity of Butgenbach. At 160400A, 3B withdrew to their former position at (895037). 1B & 2 remained in the same positions, and no action was reported for the day. 1C in support of 1st Bn, 16th Inf moved to AT positions at (866010). 2C in support of Co K, moved at 160400A to (875010). 3C remained at (881020) in support of 3rd Bn. Rcn remained in the same positions in Walk, and Libomont in Division Reserve.

g. 17 January: Weather: Cold with intermittent snow. Visibility: Poor.

The attack continued and Company A remained in its same positions supporting the 26th Inf Regt. 1B moved in support of the 1st Bn, 13th Inf Regt from its reserve positions in Nidrum to an assembly area in the vicinity of Lignueville (805989). The first Bn, 18th Inf was attached to the 23rd Inf, in an effort to out-flank the enemy positions south of the Amel River. 2B & 3B remained in the same positions, and saw no action. 2C supporting the drive of the 16th Inf Regt, had one section in mobile reserve and one section in AT positions at (372070). The one section in mobile reserve was given the mission of moving to (880003) and fire 16 rds 3" HE (NC) and 4 rds 3" APC at enemy infantry and vehicles known to be in the woods to their front (882007). This was repeated every hour between the hours of 1300 and 1700. After each mission, the section withdrew. 2C also fired 2 rds 3" HVAP at a Mk V Tank at (830008), both rounds striking and apparently jamming the turret. The tank then backed into the woods & disappeared. Rcn Company moved from Walk, Belgium with TF"D" closing in at 1345A. The CP of TF"D" was established at (887038) and the CP of Rcn Co at (887047). TF"D" was given the mission of relieving Co K, 16th Inf Regt and Co I, 18th Inf Regt on the line east of Faymonville in the vicinity of (8902) and holding this line while the Infantry continued the attack. 1 Rcn & 3 Rcn were attached to the 1st Rcn Troop and relieved Co K by 1600.

f. 18 January: Weather: Cold and snow with high winds. Visibility: Poor.

Co A remained in their positions and reported no action. 3B supporting the attack of the 2nd Bn, 18th Inf Regt moved one section at a time from (895038) to (903032) and fired at a concentration of Py infantry in the woods at (905015) and then returned to (895038) by going through Butgenbach.
